Performance of the Target Fund Fund Performance Review of the Target Fund – Pictet – Nutrition (the “Target Fund”)

Against the backdrop of a risk-on rally and the significant outperformance of the US market, the strategy lagged global equities in November as it was driven by a negative allocation effect, notably the inherent overweight to Consumer Staples and Materials (Food Ingredients) and the structural underweights to outperforming Financials. The Strategy’s bias towards Europe over the US was also unfavourable. While underlying company fundamentals remained robust, with earnings underpinned by strong volume growth and margin expansion, the continued disconnect between underlying business trends and relative share price performance led to a further derating of the strategy vs. global equities this month. The Food segment was the biggest detractor to relative performance, followed by Logistics, while Agri Tech made a positive contribution. In Food, Food Ingredients companies like DSM-Firmenich and IFF saw multiple contractions driven by sector rotation. Food Safety was the main detractor in Logistics, as the nomination of RFK and fears of tariffs under the Trump administration led to derating in names like SIG, SGS and Thermo Fisher. Agri Tech’s positive contribution was driven by Precision Tech, as John Deere’s results signalled evidence of bottoming out in terms of demand for ag machinery, driving multiple re-ratings in the sector.

Strategies and Policies Employed Strategies and Policies employed by Target Fund

The Nutrition strategy invests in companies from farm to fork that improve the sustainability of access to and quality of food and food production necessary for health and growth. We invest in innovative companies that provide solutions to the multiple challenges of our current food systems: improving the productivity and sustainability of food production, increasing the efficiency in nutrition processing, transportation, packaging and storage to reduce food waste, and maximising the nutritional content of the food we eat to reduce the disease and malnutrition burden caused by our current diets. We evaluate the ability of companies to generate sustainable growth, profitability, cash flow generation, and return on invested capital. Valuation levels must be attractive relative to growth prospects.

Strategies and Policies of the Fund

For the financial period under review, the Fund had complied with the requirements of the Guidelines on Sustainable and Responsible Investment Funds (“SRI”).

The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing a minimum of 85% of the Fund’s NAV in the Target Fund. This implies that the Fund has a passive strategy.

The Fund is a qualified SRI fund. It invests in the Target Fund that adopts thematic investment in companies contributing to and/or benefiting from the nutrition value chain. This includes screening, selection, monitoring and realization of the Target Fund’s investments by the Investment Manager. The Target Fund will adopt the following strategy to ensure that the companies that the Target Fund invests in are in line with the sustainability principles adopted and the overall impact of such investments of the Target Fund is not inconsistent with any other sustainability principles.

The Target Fund applies a capital growth strategy, by investing primarily in equities, or in any other transferable security linked to or similar to equities issued by companies throughout the world (including emerging countries).

The Target Fund also applies a sustainable strategy which aims to achieve a positive social and/or environmental impact by investing mainly in companies contributing to and/or benefiting from the nutrition value chain, in particular the quality of nutrition, access to nutrition, and sustainability of food production. These companies help to secure food supplies and improve human and planetary health by contributing to positive dietary shifts and global food security. They also help reducing negative environmental impacts compared to traditional agriculture as well as reducing food waste.

The Target Fund invests mainly in companies whose significant proportion of their activities (as measured by turnover, enterprise value, earning before income and tax, or similar metrics) are related to, but not limited to agricultural technology, sustainable agriculture or aquaculture, food products, ingredients and supplements, food logistics such as distribution, food waste solutions, food safety.

The investment process integrates ESG Factors based on proprietary and third-party research to evaluate investment risks and opportunities. The proportion of the Target Fund’s portfolio subject to ESG analysis is at least 90% of the net assets or number of issuers. When selecting the Target Fund’s investments, the ESG characteristics of issuers are taken into account to increase or decrease the target weight. It is expected that the resulting Target Fund’s ESG characteristics will be higher than the reference index after removing the bottom 20% of issuers with the lowest ESG characteristics.

This strategy applies an additional exclusion policy relating to direct investment in companies and countries that are deemed incompatible with Pictet Asset Management’s approach to responsible investment. Please refer to Pictet Asset Management’s responsible investment policy on <https://www.am.pictet/en/globalwebsite/global-articles/company/responsible-investment> for further information.

	The Target Fund's investment strategy adopts the above investing strategy. If the Target Fund's investments become inconsistent with its investment strategies, the Investment Manager shall dispose of the investment(s) within an appropriate timeframe. Even though the Fund is passively managed, the Fund's investments will be actively rebalanced from time to time to accommodate for subscription and redemption requests, price movements or due to reasons beyond Manager's control. During this period, the Fund's investment may differ from the stipulated asset allocation. Additionally, the Manager do not intend to take temporary defensive measure for the Fund during adverse market, economic, political or any other conditions to allow the Fund to mirror the performance of the Target Fund. The Manager may, in consultation with the Trustee and with the approval of the Unit Holders, terminate the Fund or replace the Target Fund with another fund that has similar objective if, in the Manager's opinion, the Target Fund no longer meets the Fund's investment objective. The replacement target fund must meet the requirements of the Guidelines on Sustainable and Responsible Investment Funds, where applicable. If the Target Fund no longer meets the requirements of the Guidelines on Sustainable and Responsible Investment Funds, the Fund's SRI status will be revoked.

Cross Trades	There were no cross trades undertaken during the financial period under review.
Distribution/ Unit splits	There is no income distribution and unit split declared for the financial period under review.
State of Affairs	There has been neither significant change to the state of affairs of the Fund nor any circumstances that materially affect any interests of the unitholders during the financial period under review.
Rebates and Soft Commission	During the period, the management company did not receive soft commissions by virtue of transactions conducted for the Fund.
Market Review	US financial markets welcomed President Trump's re-election and the Fed's second rate cut. With the S&P 500 up 5.9%, strong US equities propelled the MSCI ACWI up 3.7%. By sector, consumer discretionary and financials outperformed, with financials seen as the beneficiaries of potential policies of lower corporate tax rates and deregulation. Materials, utilities and healthcare underperformed. Utilities, particularly those focused on renewables, were hit by

	market reactions to Trump’s support for US fossil fuels, while healthcare was impacted by the proposal of vaccine sceptic Robert F. Kennedy for the Department of Health. While US markets focused on the pro-market policies of tax cuts and deregulation, international markets were concerned by the threat of tariffs and exporters to the US and were sold off. Eurozone equities delivered less than 1% in Euro terms as the region saw the German coalition break down and a French budget crisis develop into a political one. Cautious ECB comments did not help amid rising economic and geopolitical risks. Tariffs and tax cuts are seen as inflationary, so the 2-year Treasury yield rose to 4.4% from 3.6% at the start of the month, with the Dollar also strengthening against most major currencies, including a 3% move against the Euro. Source: Pictet Asset Management, as at 30 November 2024
Market Outlook	Our global food system is at an inflexion point, driven by environmental and human health crises. Three drivers that support the nutrition theme can be identified. First, given the immense pressure caused by food production on the environment, a huge opportunity exists for companies that contribute to improving the sustainability of food production and food systems, from farm to fork. Precision farming, animal and plant health products and food waste solutions are seeing strong growth. Second is the demand for healthier foods. Science and technology have driven improved awareness of the impact of poor diets on health. The Covid-19 pandemic has accelerated this trend given the link between comorbidities linked to poor diets and vulnerability to infectious disease. Government policymakers are increasing demands for reformulations of food and drink products to reduce levels of sugar, salt and saturated fats while consumers are turning towards foods and supplements with functional benefits such as improving immunity. As a result, there is an increased divergence in growth between healthy, nutritious categories and traditional packaged food categories. Finally, advances in technology and an increasingly digitally savvy consumer are driving growth for businesses in food e-commerce, personalized nutrition, and food traceability. Source: Pictet Asset Management, as at 30 November 2024

ESG considerations help to formulate investment convictions and the scale of any portfolio allocation. To track the material ESG issues our portfolios are exposed to, we have developed a proprietary ESG Integration framework. As a first step, a materiality assessment is done at theme-specific levels. This allows us to better identify material ESG issues based on companies with similar sustainability risks. We then analyse companies' management performance of those material issues. This allows us to assign a premium or discount to the target weights in the investment process based on companies' ESG performance. This analysis also helps us to identify oversights or failings that should be brought to management attention and serves as a basis for effective engagement and proxy-voting. As a result of our universe construction process and fundamental company analysis, which integrates environmental, social, and governance criteria into the scoring process, we expect the portfolio to have a better ESG score than the reference index. Source: Pictet Asset Management, as at 30 November 2024

(f) Descriptions on sustainability risk considerations and the inclusion of such risks in the SRI Fund's investment decision making process

Please refer to Pictet Asset Management's Responsible Investment Policy, under Sustainability Risks below.

Sustainability Risks

The risk arising from any environmental, social or governance events or conditions that, were they to occur, could cause a material negative impact on the value of the investment. Specific sustainability risks will vary for each portfolio, and include but are not limited to the following:

Transition Risk

The risk posed by the exposure to issuers that may potentially be negatively affected by the transition to a low carbon economy due to their involvement in exploration, production, processing, trading and sale of fossil fuels, or their dependency upon carbon intensive materials, processes, products and services. Transition risk may result from several factors, including rising costs and/or limitation of greenhouse gas emissions, energy-efficiency requirements, reduction in fossil fuel demand or shift to alternative energy sources, due to policy, regulatory, technological and market demand changes. Transition risks may negatively affect the value of investments by impairing assets or revenues, or by increasing liabilities, capital expenditures, operating and financing costs.

Physical Risk

The risk posed by the exposure to issuers that may potentially be negatively affected by the physical impacts of climate change. Physical risk includes acute risks arising from extreme weather events such as storms, floods, droughts, fires or heatwaves, and chronic risks arising from gradual changes in the climate, such as changing rainfall patterns, rising sea levels, ocean acidification, and biodiversity loss. Physical risks may negatively affect the value of investments by impairing assets, productivity or revenues, or by increasing liabilities, capital expenditures, operating and financing costs.

Environmental Risk

The risk posed by the exposure to issuers that may potentially be causing or affected by environmental degradation and/or depletion of natural resources. Environmental risk may result from air pollution, water pollution, waste generation, depletion of freshwater and marine resources, loss of biodiversity or damages to ecosystems. Environmental risks may negatively affect the value of investments by impairing assets, productivity or revenues, or by increasing liabilities, capital expenditures, operating and financing costs.

Social Risk

The risk posed by the exposure to issuers that may potentially be negatively affected by social factors such as poor labour standards, human rights violations, damages to public health, data privacy breaches, or increased inequalities. Social risks may negatively affect the value of investments by impairing as-sets, productivity or revenues, or by increasing liabilities, capital expenditures, operating and financing costs.

Governance Risk

The risk posed by the exposure to issuers that may potentially be negatively affected by weak governance structures. For companies, governance risk may result from malfunctioning boards, inadequate remuneration structures, abuses of minority shareholders or bondholders' rights, deficient controls, aggressive tax planning and accounting practices, or lack of business ethics. For countries, governance risk may include governmental instability, bribery and corruption, privacy breaches and lack of judicial independence. Governance risk may negatively affect the value of investments due to poor strategic decisions, conflicts of interest, reputational damages, increased liabilities or loss of investor confidence.
